MONTPELIER.

Washington County's Oldest Resident, Died Saturday.

The oldest resident in Washington county, Miss Mercy Clough, died Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Goodwin of East Montpelier Center. She was born in Stratford, spent 74 years in East Montpelier. For eight years she was confined to the bed. Miss Clough had no near relatives, but Mrs. Goodwin, at whose home she lived and died, was a niece, and John Clough of Montpelier Center was a nephew. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Goodwin home, with interment in the Center cemetery. Rev. V. F. Hendee, pastor of the Methodist church of this city, officiated.

Rosecoe Irwin was taken to the reform school at Vergennes yesterday to serve the remainder of his minority for breaking into and robbing various stone sheds.

Mrs. T. P. Barber, who was accidentally shot last week when her children were playing with a revolver, is gaining and her complete recovery is expected.

The first and final meeting of the creditors in the bankruptcy estate of Fred G. Lamberton was held yesterday and a dividend of three and two-tenths per cent. was declared.

Richard H. Ballard and Francis J. Marston of Montpelier and J. W. Monahan of Winoski took the examinations yesterday for entrance to West Point. The examinations were in arithmetic, grammar, geography, algebra and spelling. The results will be announced later.

Jennie McMillan, John Ryle and Joe Parant were arrested Sunday night on the charge of intoxication and the two latter appeared in the city court yesterday. The woman was ill and unable to be present. Ryle was fined $5 and costs of $6.14 and Parant was fined $15 and costs of $6.14. This was Ryle's first offense, but Parant is an old offender.

Wallace Estey of Taunton, Mass., who was fined for hunting in Warren without a non-resident's license, and D. C. Rich of Warren, who had no license until after he had shot a deer, and then had it dated back to cover the day on which he killed the animal, were each fined $10 and costs, which they were unable to raise, and therefore they are still confined in the county jail.

The King's Daughters met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. L. P. Gleason and Mrs. F. E. Smith, the feature of the meeting being the presentation to Mrs. E. Mead Denny of an amethyst and gold necklace, a gift from the King's Daughters of Vermont in appreciation of Mrs. Denny's long service as secretary and presiding officer of the state organization. When the state convention was held at Springfield, Mrs. Denny resigned her office and it was there the presentation was to have been made, but illness in her family prevented her attendance. Mrs. C. A. Best spoke of Mrs. Denny's work for the organization in terms of the highest praise, to which Mrs. Denny responded.

Benech Tuplin, a lumber, who was injured Friday at the Bertoli granite shed is as comfortable as could be expected, but as more is learned of his accident the wonder that he escaped with his life increases. It was about 4 o'clock when Tuplin was passing from one part of the shed to another, through swing doors, and without warning one of the doors toppled over, striking him on the head. He was rendered unconscious and for a time it was thought that he was dead. Examination by a physician showed that one ear was badly cut and a large piece of flesh was torn out of his right cheek, while his forehead was cut, his right knee and right elbow were sprained and one thumb was dislocated. He will probably be about in a few weeks.

Harry Barrington, for many years a resident of this city, died Sunday at his home in Pasadena, Cal., after a long period of failing health. He was employed in the Lane shops during his residence here. A few years ago he was injured in a street car accident and since that time his health had gradually failed. The immediate cause of his death was a shock, which he suffered a week ago, and from which he never rallied. Previous to that he had two others. Mr. Barrington was born in Nova Scotia about 60 years ago. Since leaving Vermont, he and his wife, who was Aurilla Dugan, conducted a dress-making establishment in the West. The surviving members of his family are his wife and one son, Harry. Mrs. A. C. Roberts of this city is a sister-in-law.
